RE: Notification of rescission of administrative review of antidumping duty order on certain cased pencils from the People's Republic of China (A-570-827)

1. Commerce has rescinded the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on certain cased pencils from the People's Republic of China (PRC) (A-570-827) covering the period 12/01/2011 through 11/30/2012. You are to assess antidumping duties on merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the period 12/01/2011 through 11/30/2012 at the cash deposit required at the time of entry.

Liquidate all entries for the following firms:

Orient International Holding Shanghai Foreign Trade Co., Ltd.

Case number: A-570-827-002

PRC-Wide Entity

Case number: A-570-827-000

2. Commerce also rescinded this administrative review with respect to Beijing Fila Dixon Stationery Company, Ltd. a/k/a/ Beijing Dixon Ticonderoga Stationery Company, Ltd. a/k/a Beijing Dixon Stationery Company, Ltd. (A-570-827-010). However, in the prior review, Commerce revoked the antidumping order on certain cased pencils from the PRC in part with respect to all subject merchandise exported by Beijing Fila Dixon Stationery Company, Ltd. a/k/a/ Beijing Dixon Ticonderoga Stationery Company, Ltd. a/k/a Beijing Dixon Stationery Company, Ltd. (A-570-827-010); the effective date of the revocation was 12/01/2011 (78 FR 42932). In accordance with message 3219302, dated 08/07/2013, all entries that were suspended on or after 12/01/2011 should be liquidated without regard to antidumping duties (i.e., release all bonds and refund all cash deposits).

3. Notice of the lifting of suspension of liquidation of entries of subject merchandise covered by paragraph 1 occurred with publication of the notice of rescission of administrative review (78 FR 54452, 09/04/2013). Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of certain cased pencils from the PRC you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current rates.

4. There are no injunctions applicable to the entries covered by this instruction

5. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties is required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

6. Upon assessment of antidumping duties, CBP shall require that the importer provide a reimbursement statement, as described in section 351.402(f)(2) of Commerce's regulations. The importer should provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation of the entry. If the importer certifies that it has an agreement with the producer, seller, or exporter, to be reimbursed antidumping duties, CBP shall double the antidumping duties in accordance with the above-referenced regulation. Additionally, if the importer does not provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation, reimbursement shall be presumed and CBP shall double the antidumping duties due. If an importer timely files a protest challenging the presumption of reimbursement and doubling of duties, consistent with CBP's protest process, CBP may accept the reimbursement statement filed with the protest to rebut the presumption of reimbursement.

7. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by O1: MJK.)

8. There are no restrictions on the release of this information.
